Sir,

Subject: Rules for scholarship-holders.

Ref UP 13/8

I have the honour to invite your attention to the above subject. Up to the present there have been no rules governing the payment of scholarships and the matter has been left more or less in my hands. In order to regularise the grounds on which the payment is made and withheld, I have drawn up a proposed set of rules which I should be glad if you could consider and sanction. The rules have been approved by the Governing Body of the School. I am sending the same provisional rules to all Governments and authoritie awarding scholarships and it would be convenient if all Governments adopted the same set of rules so that there will be uniformity.

I have the honour to be,

INDIAN SCHOOL OF MINES.

SCHOLARSHIP RULES.

A. During the School session.

1. Absence without leave up to 30 days entails loss of scholarship for twice the period of absence. Absence without leave for over 30 days entails forfeiture of a scholarship and the student will be reported to the Government or authority awarding the scholarship.

2. Leave of absence up to 15 days in a year may be granted by the Principal without loss of scholarship. Longer absence with leave other than sick leave entails loss of scholarship for the whole period of absence, provided that the Principal may give leave without loss of scholarship up to one month to a scholar on the death of a parent.

3. Absence on account of illness up to seven days entails no loss of scholarship, but if a scholar is absent for short periods more than three times in the course of a year, or if the absence exceeds seven days, a medical certificate, signed by an Assistant Surgeon, must be furnished. On production of this certificate half the scholarship may be granted by the Principal for a period of absence not exceeding three months; in default of its production, the period of absence shall be treated as absence without leave.

4. If leave of absence is overstayed, the leave is cancelled. Holidays in continuation of absence are reckoned as absence with or without leave, according as the preceding absence was with or without leave.

5. The tenure of a scholarship for the second or any subsequent year is dependent on the submission to the Government or authority awarding the scholarship of a certificate of due progress from the Principal. Promotion of a scholar to the next higher class is regarded as due progress for the purpose of this rule.

6. Scholars are liable to be reported to the Government or authority awarding the scholarship at any time on proof of unsatisfactory progress or for any other sufficient reason.

B. During the long vacation.

7. During the long vacation it will be incumbent on a scholar to submit a certificate, signed by the Manager of the mine or other officer under whom he has been placed, showing that he has been regular in attendance during the preceding month. Provided that in the case of a scholar placed on Geological field work on his own responsibility it will be sufficient if the scholar submits a detailed record of the work done during the month.

8. A scholar must spend not less than 8 complete weeks each of 6 full working days in practical work in a mine or in geological field work and if he does not do so he will be paid his scholarship only for each completed week of training undergone.

9. A scholar who spends the minimum period stated in Rule 8 in practical work will be entitled to his scholarship for the full period of the long Vacation.
